

Free online and downloadable switch software

<http://www.priorywoods.middlesbrough.sch.uk/> and follow the link to Resources. Cause and effect switch accessible music videos. This school website has other activities but mainly not yet switch accessible.

<http://www.specialbites.com>. Site with switch games – some free and some only available when you subscribe. They also have video tutorials on making your own materials.

<http://www.oneswitch.org.uk/2/switch-downloads.htm> Switch operated games in a variety of formats – some mainly designed for older pupils.

www.checkthemap.org. Website with links to a variety of online and downloadable games.

<http://www.ianbean.co.uk/senswitcher/> SENSwitcher – a set of switch activated activities ranging from experiential learning to simple scanning. Comes with teachers' notes and record sheets. Can be downloaded or run online. See notes below for access.

<http://www.ianbean.co.uk/members-area> Site set up by teacher previously employed by Priory Woods School and Inclusive Technology. Games are free but you will need to register and sign in to use them.

<http://www.portlandcollege.org/curriculum/resources/> Follow links to Resources by Pete Wells and Sensory Stories. Online resources for SLD pupils. Some downloadable and switch accessible. Great stories.

<http://www.senteacher.org/download/79/CauseEffectSensory.html> Free downloadable cause and effect programme. Links to others.

<http://www.shinylearning.co.uk/freegames/>. Some simple switch accessible games.

Others can be accessed by subscription.

<http://neave.com> Try: TV (Good for older pupils. Old television and film clips are joined together and change when the switch or mouse is pressed.) or Wobble.

<http://tarheelgameplay.org/>: Very simple switch access to YouTube videos.

Subscription Services

www.helpkidzlearn.com. Service run by Inclusive Technology with a wide variety of games, stories etc. Also includes the login for Chooselt! Maker 3 which contains a range of scanning activities as well as allowing you to make your own. Also has activities for iPads and Android tablets.

www.kneeouncers.com American subscription site for early learners. Can sign up for a free one week trial. Some games also available for iPad or Android tablet.

2017