

CENMAC RAISING ASPIRATIONS

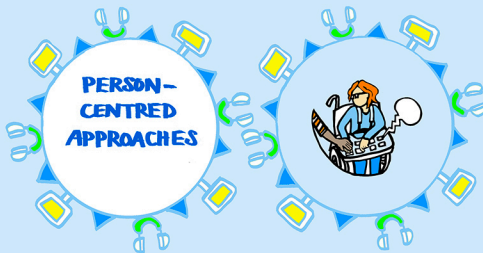

- Seeing the potential in everyone
- Celebrating small steps and big changes

- Teaching and learning that is accessible
- Promoting independence and self-determination

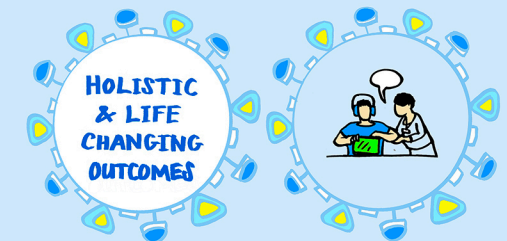

- Regardless of age, diversity or need, inequitable systems or outdated policy

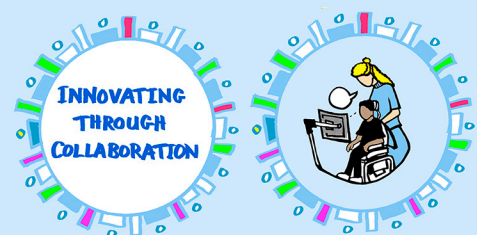

- Centering young views, experiences & communication throughout our practice

- Listening to family, valuing culture & language
- Working in partnership for better lives & learning

- Removing barriers, finding creative solutions
- Preparing for life after education

- Co-designing new technologies with students, therapists, companies, universities

- Sharing specialist knowledge with partners: Teachers, TAs, SENCOs, families, health...

- Improving the environment using evidence-based tools (SETT framework)