International Exhibition Timetable

Morning Session (11:00am to 12:10pm)

VoiceItt – STATION ONE

speech recognition technology that enables individuals with non-standard speech to use their own voice to communicate with others and access other voice systems, technologies, and platforms.

SnapType – STATION TWO

A simple way to complete any school worksheet on your iPad or Chromebook.

Eglas – STATIONS THREE and FOUR

Kokolingo - An innovative digital solution for child speech therapy that accelerates progress through gamified speech articulation exercises

SENCastle - a unique multimodal sensory device that connects a child's sensory needs with assistive technology

Midday Session (12:15pm to 1:45pm)

Switchify – STATIONS ONE AND TWO

Switchify transforms your Android device into an accessible interface, empowering everyone to use technology their way.

Celtic Magic – STATIONS THREE AND FOUR

Celtic Magic are a small development company based in the East Midlands that designs extremely sensitive equipment to better connect the disabled user to their computer, gaming systems or environment.

Afternoon Session (1:45pm to 2:30pm)

AdaptedCreations - STATIONS ONE AND TWO

Maker of Switch adapted toys, switch mounts, 3D AAC symbols and touch guards.

Step Up AT (University of Miami) - STATIONS THREE AND FOUR

An evidence-based customizable program that coaches teachers, teacher assistants, teacher support specialists, school districts, and other agencies to adopt evidence-based assistive technology (AT) practices shown to improve early literacy outcomes for young children (ages 3-5) with disabilities.