

20 Questions

Think of something

Give one clue at a time.

for example -

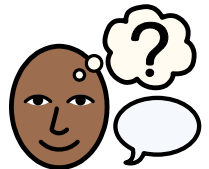

it has fur,

it has four legs,

some people have them as a pet,

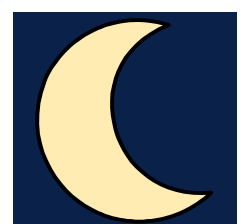

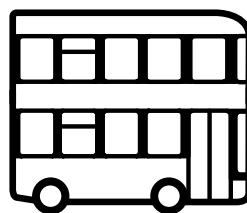

they can have sharp claws,

they say meow!

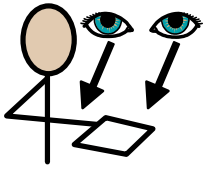

Let the other players guess after each clue.

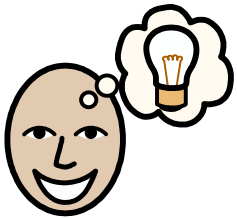

The game can be played with players own ideas or with a selection of pictures to support the players.

What can you see in the picture?

Share a picture of a scene with the people you are with, this can be a picture of anything. a picture of the seaside, a supermarket, a traffic jam.

What can you see in the picture?

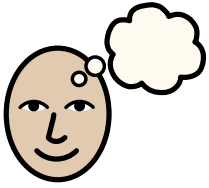

Ask each other questions about what is in the scene.

What do they like about it, who did they go with when they went to somewhere like the picture etc.

Chat about memories you have had at a place like this.

This idea can be used with a picture of anything. A pile of food, a party, something that you have all done together.

Where am I

Think of a place

Give one clue at a time.

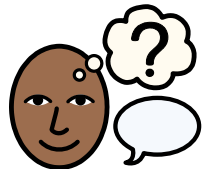

for example -

My team wears red shirts.

I cheer when they score a goal.

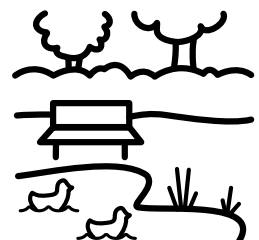

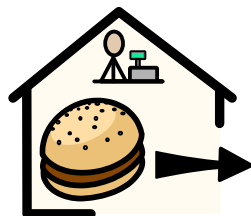

I am happy when we win.

Where am I?

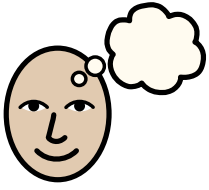

Let the other players guess after each clue.

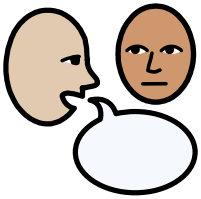

The game can be played with players own ideas or with a selection of pictures to support the players.

I spy

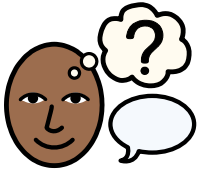

Think of something you can see around you or in a picture.

Show me something that starts with (letter or letter sound)

What can you see that is (a colour)

Can you see anything that is a (shape)

Take it in turns to share what you have seen.

This game can be played at any time, while you are in the playground, on the bus, or at home having dinner. Have a look around where you are or you can use a picture of any scene.